

ONE DAY CONFERENCE Discursive Identities in Historical English Texts

Università degli Studi di Firenze
Via S. Reparata, 93
50129 Firenze

	Thursday 24th October 2019
	Room 20 – 2nd floor
09.45-10.00	Welcome address
10.00-11.00	Plenary lecture B. Bös. “SWEARING COMES NATURAL TO LABOURERS” . Processes of identity construction in Victorian news reports on verbal misconduct
	Room 8 – 2nd floor
11.00-11.30	Coffee break
	Room 20 – 2nd floor
11.30-12.00	G. Del Lungo. The construction of women’s Quaker identity. A case study: Margaret Fell
12.00-12.30	F. Ditifeci/I. Kantzas. A diachronic analysis of variations of the English Language in the Bible: a question of Identity
	Room 8 – 2nd floor
12.30-14.00	Lunch
	Room 20 – 2nd floor
14.00-15.00	Plenary lecture R. Facchinetti. The building of English language identity in historical dictionaries and grammar books
15.00-15.30	L.Vezzosi. Pronouns in Dickinson as a means of constructing a poetic 'self'
15.30-16.00	E. Cecconi. Collective identities in the Early Modern English pamphlets on the colonization of Virginia: a corpus-assisted discourse study
16.00	Round up